

Sadly Chris (Christopher Richard) Stansbury (Armstrong 1943 – 1946) passed away at home on Christmas Day 2013. Having been in physical and mental decline for some time, and latterly in hospital, it will have come as a blessed relief to him. His large family will miss him greatly.

Chris (2nd son of Christopher Geoffrey Stansbury and Christina Stansbury) was born in Cape Town on 13th Oct 1928. He attended Western Province Preparatory School and St Andrew's College, Grahamstown.

He joined the Royal Navy in 1945, and served with great pride until 1972, as a torpedoe and anti-submarine specialist, retiring as Commander.

For the next stage of his life the family relocated to the East Midlands where Chris was Bursar at Trent College until retirement in 1991. After a few more years in Long Eaton, Meryl and Chris moved to Ferndown in Dorset where they have happily remained ever since.

The Stansbury family